Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/17

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245	filing fee
$75	administrative fee
+ $15	trustee surcharge
$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:

http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from: http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to: <http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

Official Form 106CSchedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

7. RETENTION OF CLIENT(S) RECORDS:

8. READ CAREFULLY: Client understands that no paralegal, secretary, or other non-lawyer working at the offices of Gillespie and Murphy, P.A., has the authority (i) to give legal advice, (ii) to recommend that client should or should not file for the protection of bankruptcy, (iii) to recommend that client file under one bankruptcy chapter rather than another chapter, to the extent that such advice or recommendation would involve the exercise of independent legal judgement. Client acknowledges that no one employed by or affiliated with the law offices of Gillespie and Murphy, P.A., other than an attorney, has given such advice or made any such recommendation to the client.

9. Caution: Client understands that if client is behind in payments on a car, mobile home, furniture loan, lease or other secured debt, the bankruptcy laws do not stop a creditor from repossessing or otherwise taking such property until such time as the client's case gets filed with the Bankruptcy Court. Similarly, client understands that foreclosure on a home or a piece of land cannot be stopped until the clients case gets filed with the Bankruptcy Court.

10. Returned Checks: Client will be charged (i) a processing fee of $25.00 for any check in which payment has been refused by the payor bank because of insufficient funds or because the drawer did not have an account at that bank and (ii) any service charges imposed on the attorney by a bank or depository for processing the dishonored check, pursuant to the provisions of N.C.G.S. section 6-21.3 and 25-3-506.

Any payments made by personal check will delay the filing of the related bankruptcy petition for ten (10) business days to allow checks to clear the bank.

12. Information related to a Chapter 7 bankruptcy and the role of the Chapter 7 trustee assigned to your case by the Court and the role of the Bankruptcy Administrator in review of your chapter case after filing: When you file a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy, the Court assigns a Chapter 7 Trustee to your case. John Bircher, Walter Hinson, and Stephen Beaman currently serve as Trustees in this district. Once assigned to your case, the Trustee will review the information you provided to the Court and determine if there are any assets to administer.

a. The role of the Trustee includes but is not limited to the following:

1. Reviews the information in your documents for accuracy. The Trustee will review other sources to confirm you have made full and complete disclosure including:
 - (a) City and County tax records
 - (b) Department of Motor Vehicle records
 - (c) Secretary of State records
 - (d) IRS and State Department of Revenue records
 - (e) Internet Searches
 - (f) County court records
 - (g) any other public records available to the Trustee
 - (h) other information or documents the trustee may request from you to determine the honesty and accuracy of your petition.
2. Reviews your petition, tax returns, bank records, business records, etc. to verify your income, debts, expenses, and personal and business transactions.
3. Determines if you have assets that are not protected, that he, as Trustee, can sell to pay money to your unsecured creditors.

The moment you file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy, all your personal belongings and real estate come under the control of your Trustee. If the property has value over what the law allows you to protect, he has the authority to sell your property, pay you the value you are entitled to protect and distribute the balance to any lien holder, pay his allowed commission and fees and then pay any remaining amounts to your unsecured creditors. We, as your attorneys, will review your information to maximize your exemptions to protect your property.

If you own real estate (house, land, condo, duplex, timeshare, mobile homes and land, etc.) the Trustee will closely examine the Deed, Promissory Note and Deed of Trust for any defects. The Trustee may file an adversary proceeding (legal action against your lender), if he believes there is a defect. If he is successful in this action, the lien/mortgage will be deemed void. The Trustee will then get Court permission to sell the property, pay you whatever amount you are entitled to protect via your exemption(s) and pay your unsecured creditors any amounts remaining after his commission and fees are paid. This is why we review these documents prior to the case being filed.

If the Trustee determines you have improperly claimed an exemption to protect something you own, he may object to the exemption. If the Court agrees with his objection you will lose the exemption or have it reduced in amount. If the Trustee sells the property, you would receive a reduced amount or possibly nothing at all. Our duty is to maximize your exemptions so you get the most protection.

If you have repaid debts to family members, partners or business associates in money or property in the 12 months prior to the date your bankruptcy is filed, the Trustee can and probably will demand the return of that money or property, or its value, from the person who received it. If the person does not comply, the Trustee can file an adversary proceeding against that person to obtain a Court Order requiring the return of the money or property.

If you have transferred or sold any property, real or personal, to anyone in the four years prior to the Chapter 7 filing date, the Trustee may inquire if you received a fair amount of value for the transfer. If the Trustee believes you did not, or if he believes the transfer was in some other way improper, he could demand money from the person who received what you transferred or seek to undo the transfer to bring the property into your bankruptcy estate and sell the property to pay to the Trustee for his fees and to your unsecured creditors.

If you are entitled to a tax refund, insurance proceeds, a marital settlement or inheritance at the time you file the Chapter 7 or if you become entitled to such within 180 days of filing, these become part of your bankruptcy as an asset and can be taken by the Trustee to distribute to your creditors unless they can be protected by an exemption.

The Trustee has the authority to examine your bank accounts and tax returns as well as business and other records. He will determine if you have taken any inappropriate actions prior to filing your case. If so, he can seek money or property from you or those with whom you have done business. He can also seek to have your Discharge denied by the Court if you have misrepresented facts or committed any fraudulent act or otherwise violated any Bankruptcy Rules. In severe cases, you can be charged with Bankruptcy Fraud, a federal crime.

We designed our Bankruptcy Questionnaire and Document Request Forms to obtain all of the information needed to prepare your bankruptcy documents honestly and accurately. We use this information to comply with the Federal and Local Bankruptcy Rules and to determine which chapter of bankruptcy is best suited to help you get a fresh start. These documents also help us advise you of potential risks in your case, if any. Finally, we use this information to determine what property is protected or otherwise exempt and not subject to control of the Trustee. This is why your careful attention to EACH question on EACH page of these documents is extremely important. We are here to help you, but we need your help and cooperation in order to give your case the greatest chance to succeed.
